18/136 Agenda items

- i) Neighbourhood Plan Update
A meeting is planned to discuss planning with Helen Metcalfe and Karen Adams at Newark and Sherwood District Council. Queries from residents regarding the neighbourhood plan are also to be discussed at this meeting.
- ii) Playing Field update
No discussion.
- iii) Feasibility of Village Hall
A discussion took place and it was decided that a feasibility study should take place, in order that residents have full facts when a decision is made by them on whether a village hall should be built.
Cllr Stanley proposed that the council obtain quotations.
Jenny Kirkwood from RCan is providing guidance to the council to help with grant funding for the village hall and the possibility of use of a trust for the Hall.
- iv) Website update
A discussion took place on making the website look more up to date. It was agreed that ideas should be brought to the next meeting.
- v) Insurance
Cllr Bromley had looked into whether the playing field was covered under the existing insurance policy. It appears as though it is, however the Clerk is to contact the insurance broker to query this, and whether the village hall would be covered once built and during construction.

- vi) Village Assets
A draft list was brought to the meeting prepared by Cllrs Hunt, Shaw-Browne and Bradley. Cllr Stanley is to cross-reference the list with the Neighbourhood plan assets and get feedback from Helen Metcalfe at the planning meeting.
- vii) Silent Soldier
The council have been invited by British Legion to purchase a 'Silent Soldier' which is a decorative silhouette of a soldier that can be placed within the Parish to remember those who never came home from WW1. The Clerk is to find out the size of the soldier and the pricing of possible poppies to surround it if the council were to purchase one.
- viii) Defibrillator
The Clerk is to obtain prices from the Community Heartbeat Trust and circulate these to the Council before trying to obtain funding.
- ix) Dog & Duck & Footpath
The Dog and Duck pub intends to be open in April.
A discussion took place regarding the potential to use Network Rail land for a footpath from the Dog and Duck to Sherwood Pines. Cllr Bromley is to contact Network Rail to explore this further.
- x) Casual Vacancy
No applications received.

18/137 Accounts for Payment

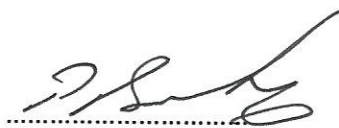

The following items were approved unanimously, and payments will be made by online banking:

- i. Clerk's pay for February
- ii. Edwinstowe Parish Council Room hire £40
- iii. JKE Web Design Maintenance £250
